1. No food or beverages may be brought in to the Stadium by the Client or its guests.
2. Access to the corporate facility will be given to the Client and its guests for the event on presentation by each person of an admission ticket and any other such accreditation for the event which will be supplied by Optus Stadium to the Client approximately 2 weeks prior to the event following receipt of full payment. The Client agrees that the tickets and/or accreditation must not be sold or transferred or provided (other than to the Client's guests) in any circumstances to any person, organisation, hospitality agent or other entity.
3. Events are subject to being scheduled by the hirer. Optus Stadium cannot guarantee that the event or the date of the event will not change, be postponed or be cancelled. If the event is postponed or cancelled, the liability of Optus Stadium is limited, at Optus Stadium's option, to supplying you with tickets to a similar event or an amount equal to the fee paid for the event.
4. The Client must ensure that the Client and any bearer of a corporate ticket provided to the Client does not: (a) sell a ticket at a premium; (b) use a ticket for advertising, promotional or other commercial purposes including public competitions and trade promotions but excluding private commercial purposes which are not public in nature; and (c) use a ticket to enhance the demand for other goods and services.
5. The Client must not display any signage or advertising of any kind on or within the corporate facility without the prior approval of Optus Stadium. The Client must ensure the responsible behaviour of its guests and compliance at all times with the guidelines for use of corporate facilities issued by Optus Stadium.
6. All ticket holders must comply with the ticket conditions appearing on the event tickets.
7. The full amount for the package must be paid by the due date outlined in the payment information.
8. Cancellations outside of 14 days prior to the event will incur a cancellation fee equal to 50% of the ticket price and cancellations less than 14 days before the event will incur a cancellation fee equal to 100% of the ticket price.
